Hi Milana,

Your company was a pleasure to deal with and I will certainly look to you again for future client needs. Everyone I dealt with there was very professional, understood the "client environment" and communicated well - both pro-actively and responsively.

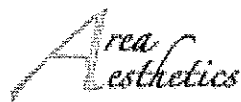

I was not at the installation today, but my assistant who was reported that Roy worked fast and clean, and was sensitive to the environment, disrupting it as little as possible as it was the middle of my client's workday. I am more than pleased as was the client.

I'd love to know more about your company, including what products you can provide in addition to solar shades and the Hunter Douglas line.

I look forward to working with you again.

Best,
